Miss Egan writes.....

It is so special when something you are passionate about and is so important really comes to fruition. Our 'Mental Health Awareness' week last week surpassed all our expectations with an amazing turnout for our parent's workshop on the Wednesday evening and a very thoughtful and empathetic assembly written and delivered by our Year 6 children on Friday. We look forward to continuing to learn and develop our understanding of this very important topic. On St Valentine's day, I offer the following reminder from St Paul in his letter to the Corinthians.....

*'Love is patient and kind;
It is not jealous or conceited or proud;
Love is not ill mannered or selfish or irritable;
Love does not keep record of wrongs;
Love is not happy with evil, but is happy with the truth.
Love never gives up;
And its faith, hope and patience never fail.'*

I wish all our families a happy and a restful half term break and look forward to hearing all about it when we return to school on Monday 24th February.

After half term we will be welcoming some visitors.....
Can you guess who????

Half Term Holiday Head's Up!!!

On Thursday 5th March, St Mary's will be celebrating World Book Day. How about spending some time in half term thinking about and maybe preparing your costume for that day. Think of a book character and how you can dress like them on that day. Let your imaginations run wild!! We look forward to seeing your creations.

Good Old King Tut!
Year 3 were very excited to visit the Tutankhamun exhibition at the Saatchi Gallery at the end of January. Today, we were treated to a fantastic assembly where they shared their knowledge and enthusiasm so confidently. It was lovely to see so many proud parents who also joined us for lunch. Well done Year 3.

This week, Year 2 visited the National Maritime Museum in Greenwich. We have been learning about explorers and their expeditions to the North Pole, South Pole and even the moon! We also brought along Wilber the Penguin for his very own adventure. Year 2 had a fantastic day exploring and learning more about this exciting topic.
